Reading of the Law of God

Scripture Reading: Ruth 4:1–12

Prayer

Psalter 241:1–6

Sermon Text: Ruth 4:9–12

Redemption Accomplished (13)

1. Seen in the purchase of redemption

2. Seen in the purpose of redemption

3. Seen in the prospects of redemption

Psalter 367:4, 5 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 422:1, 7

Doxology of Praise (pg. 415)

Benediction

1. Why is it important that Boaz calls the elders and people to witness what he has done?
2. How does the word “all” speak to the comprehensive nature of redemption?
3. What is the first purpose of Boaz’s redemption? How is this a picture of the purpose of Christ’s redemption of sinners?
4. What is the significance of raising up an heir for the name of the dead?
5. Explain the importance of the word “house”. How does that help us understand the Davidic promise in 2 Samuel 7?
6. Explain the importance of the word “seed”. How does that connect this narrative to Genesis 3:15 and then ultimately to Jesus?

Parking Lot Question: Discuss how providence serves redemption, both in large scale events, but also in the daily events of people’s lives. Can you trace that theme in your own life?
