Prayer

Psalter 152

Sermon Text: Mark 6:45–52

The I AM's Compassionate Power

1. Through a trying Savior

2. Through an approaching Savior

3. Through a reassuring Savior

4. Through a rescuing Savior

Psalter 381:1, 3, 4 (standing)

Reading of the second part of the Lord's Supper form

Psalter 118

Administration of the Lord's Supper

Psalter 204

Closing Prayer

Psalter 295

Doxology of Praise (pg. 415)

Benediction

1. How and why did Jesus try His disciples by leaving them in a boat alone on a stormy sea?
2. Describe what you experience when you feel like you are in stormy trials in your life without Jesus. Why does the Lord Jesus often wait long to show you that He really is present after all to meet all your needs?
3. How does the Lord Jesus use our waves of trial as a way to come to us?
4. Why are the disciples full of fear when they see Jesus walking on the sea?
5. What important lesson can we learn today from Peter's sinking in the waves in the parallel account in Matthew 14?
6. How does the real Jesus reassure His disciples in a real way in the midst of a real tempest as He approaches them? How does He do this for us today?
7. How did Jesus rescue His disciples when He came into the boat?
8. What lesson can we learn from the conclusion of our text: "They considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened" (v. 52)?

Sermon Text: Romans 7:14–25

The Reality of Christian Experience

1. Understanding an important contrast (14–16)

2. Engaging in a frustrating conflict (17–23)

3. Living out of a victorious conclusion (24–25)

Psalter 333 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 363

Doxology (Psalter 197)

Benediction

1. Why is Romans 7:14–25 important to understand for a healthy Christian experience?

2. What is the contrast that Paul builds in verses 14–16?

3. Explain what is meant by Paul's use of 'mind' versus 'flesh.'

4. How does that distinction help us understand what happens in the battle with indwelling sin?

5. Explain Paul's different usages of the word 'law' in verses 21–23.

6. How is Christ the answer in the battle against indwelling sin?

7. How is Romans 7:14–25 a comfort, but also continued encouragement to engage in battle with sin?
