3. A profound discovery

Psalter 427:7, 8 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 200:1–3

Doxology (Psalter 200:4)

Benediction

1. Explain the profound symbolism involved in comparing the Garden of Eden with the Garden of Joseph of Arimathaea.

2. Explain the profound symbolism of the sun rising on Jesus's empty grave at the time the women arrived there.

3. What was the root of the women's profound question and anxiety about who could roll away the stone from the sepulchre's door? How does that same root serve as an obstacle for us today in coming to the resurrected Lord of glory?

4. What five profound matters were the women invited to "come and see"?

5. What profound discovery did the women make? What lessons does Christ's open, empty sepulchre preach profoundly to us today?
