Lord's Day 41

Adultery Forbidden!

1. Its idolatrous nature

2. Its awful consequences

3. Its divine remedy

Psalter 342 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 337

Doxology of Praise (pg. 415)

Benediction

1. How has sexual sin become an idol for many in our society today?
2. List and define five words that Paul uses to describe sexual immorality today?
3. Why is sexual immorality inseparable from the question of who is Lord in your life?
4. List six characteristics of God's wrath that come upon people who keep disobeying Him, especially in the area of sexual purity, without repenting?
5. List some additional, awful consequences of sinning against the seventh commandment.
6. Provide three reasons why people who might think they are Christians continue to persist in sinning against the seventh commandment.
7. Negatively, how must we war against sexual sin?
8. Positively, how must we mortify sin by using the means God has given us to grow spiritually?

Doxology (Psalter 196)

Benediction

1. Why did God ask Elijah: "What are you doing here?" How does that apply to you?

2. What does it mean to pray what David prayed in Psalm 139:23–24, and why is it necessary?

3. How did the Lord comfort Elijah when he was down but then also exhort him afterwards?

4. How are both law and gospel pictured in the ways the Lord passed by Elijah? How does that apply to us?

5. What are several very important lessons we can learn from this history?
