Doxology (Psalter 199:4, 5)

Benediction

1. What are we confessing with David, when we say, "The LORD is my Shepherd"?
2. Why do we, like sheep, need to be gently led and then made to lie down? What causes us to so often miss out on times of rest and refreshment in the green pastures that the Lord brings us to?
3. What is implied in the fact that the Shepherd must restore my soul? What imagery is seen in the words, "He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness..."?
4. Why could the psalmist say that he would fear no evil even though he was walking "through the valley of the shadow of death"? How does our good Shepherd continue to comfort His people in the midst of their troubles and difficulties?
5. Is the psalmist's longing to be in the house of the LORD forever, your longing? What is the grounds for this intense longing to be in the presence of the good Shepherd?
6. Reflection: Is the LORD your shepherd? Are you satisfied with His intentional grace and care for His sheep?
