Lord's Day 38

How to Keep the Lord's Day Holy

1. The doctrine
2. The discipline
3. The delight
4. The desire

Psalter 170 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 31:1-3, 7

Doxology (Psalter 199:4, 5)

Benediction

1. How is the Lord's Day doctrine set apart in these areas:
 - a. As a creation ordinance
 - b. As the fourth commandment
 - c. As the owner of the Sabbath
 - d. As the NT church's practice
2. How does the Lord's Day call even believers to exercise disciplined self-control in at least six ways?
3. How should the joy of the Lord's Day help you and your family to find exquisite delight in worshiping God?
4. What four acts of worship does Lord's Day 38 mention we should find delight in as we worship God among His people? Can you add one or two more that are missing?
5. Why does Lord's Day 38 begin with an emphasis on theological seminaries?
6. Besides worshiping God in His house, can you provide a variety of helps for spending the remainder of our time on the Lord's Day?
7. How does keeping the Lord's Day holy cultivate hope in Christ's second coming, so that we, as Question 103 concludes, "begin in this life the eternal sabbath"?

SUNDAY EVENING

2. Their character
3. Their conviction

Psalter 305 (standing)

Closing Prayer

Psalter 321

Doxology (Psalter 196)

Benediction

1. What important task did Paul leave for Titus on the island of Crete?
2. What three titles does Paul use to describe those who are called to lead the church of Jesus Christ? What can we learn from each of these?
3. As we considered the character of those whom the Lord is calling to lead His church, what four overarching commitments should we find in their lives?
4. Also, in consideration of the character of elders and future elders what are the five things that we must not see in their conduct?
5. What are the six things that we must see?
6. And what will be the one dominant conviction that will continue to direct their life and inform and help them in their work as a leader in the Church of Christ? And how will this be seen in their work as an elder?
