2. In our prayers, are we seeking positions of honor and comfort like James and John, or are we asking Christ to shape us for humble service in His kingdom? (vv. 35–45)
3. Do we, like Bartimaeus, recognize our spiritual blindness and cry out persistently to the Son of David for mercy, even when others try to silence us? (vv. 46–48)
4. If Jesus were to ask you today, “What do you want Me to do for you?” how would your answer reveal your deepest desires and faith? (vv. 51–52)

reciting Creed together

1. What was the significance of Jesus washing His disciples' feet? What was He communicating to them about Himself?
2. Jesus also washed Judas's feet. What does this tell us about our Lord?
3. What didn't Peter understand? How are we often like Peter?
4. Some would say that Peter was overzealous in his request for his feet, hands, and head to be washed. How can zeal without knowledge be a danger in the Christian life?
5. In verse 10 Jesus uses two different words for "washed." What important theological teaching is He communicating and what implication does it have for our lives?
6. What does Jesus tell us about our relationship with each other and about His relationship with His Father?
